

few minutes. They were probably in Sunday school when the tragedy occurred, and knew nothing of it until informed by an aunt, Mrs. Alma Alviss, who afterwards took them to her home. She is a sister to Mrs. Webb.

Had Mental Trouble.
Mrs. Webb's mental trouble seems to be inherited. Her mother had been afflicted in a like way and that she died in a hospital. She had stated several times that she would kill herself. Mr. Webb had never taken her seriously. He had no fear of her, he said, for he had always thought he would be able to guard himself in case she should become violent.

Captain Lipscomb and Officer Moore answered the call of Dr. Loving, and made an investigation of the premises. They were at first unable to find the revolver, but it was at length discovered in a washstand drawer. Mrs. Webb evidently shot herself in the house, replaced the revolver, a thirty-caliber, and then walked out on the porch. She seemed not to realize what she had done.

Mr. Webb is thirty-five years old, and his wife was twenty-nine.

AMUSEMENTS

"Captain Swift" To-Night.

During the week beginning to-night the Benjamin Players will be seen in the stirring four-act drama, "Captain Swift," which has been a gentlemanly crook who has been a notorious Australian highwayman and bush-ranger, and who is met up with his various high crimes and misdemeanors in England, where he is a fugitive from justice. The title role, which was first played by Maurice Barrymore, should be well handled by Franklin Ritchie, the popular leading man of the organization, whose forte lies in strong characterizations of this kind. The mounting will be more than usually elaborate.

The Benjamin Company will move over to the Bijou Theatre on Friday and Saturday nights, and at the Saturday matinee, owing to the fact that the house performances had been previously looked at the Academy to other attractions.

"The Three Twins"
"The Three Twins" will be the attraction at the Academy on Saturday night. "The Three Twins" has many song hits, the "Yama Yama Man" and "The Cuddle Song" being the most prominent, with its tableaux showing the seven ages of childhood.
